Evergreen Rebecca Rasmussen

A BookPage Best Book of the Year

It is 1938 when Eveline, a young bride, follows her husband, Emil, into the Minnesota wilderness. Though their cabin is rundown, they have a river full of fish, a garden out back, and a baby boy named Hux. But when Emil leaves to take care of his sick father, a dangerous stranger arrives, fracturing their small family forever and leaving Hux to grow up wondering if the wrongs of the past can ever be mended.

Set before a backdrop of vanishing forest, Rebecca Rasmussen has written a luminous and emotionally charged novel about how one defining moment can echo through generations.

David Wilkens:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or even make summary for some book, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's internal or real their pastime. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring along with can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this Evergreen can make you really feel more interested to read.
