Emma: Her Journey From Here to Heaven Eric Boughman

Penned by her father, this is a story that takes readers from the day of an accident that claimed the life of their seven year old daughter Emma into present day. It is a story that celebrates Emma's life and shines a spotlight on God's goodness and grace, while also giving an honest depiction of what bad days are like in the aftermath. This book will reach so many people on many different levels and will show the scripture in the Bible found in Philippians 4:13 to be very true "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me."
