You just graduated. Now what?

Hear what Jesus has to say to you during this major life transition.

During times of transition and unknown next steps, it is more important than ever to cling to the promises of God and to tune your ear to hear what Jesus has to say. Jesus Calling® for Graduates provides guidance and encouragement for new grads as they venture into the next phase of their lives.

Follow along with 150 devotions divided topically—on topics such as attitude, discerning God’s will, identity, and worth—that are most applicable and relevant to your life now—a little bigger, a little more exciting, a little scarier—and lean in close to hear what Jesus is saying to you today: words of hope, encouragement, and reassurance of His unending love.

Still don't understand it, oh come on its named reading friends.

William Bellard:

As a scholar exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's spirit or real their interest. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Jesus Calling for Graduates can make you feel more interested to read.
