The Seventh Trumpet John Ehrlich

Ever since the apostles stood and watched Jesus ascend into Heaven, believers have been waiting for Jesus to return to Earth. We have all prayed earnestly just as the Apostle John prayed, “Even so, come Lord Jesus.” Two thousand years have passed since He ascended and still the promise is fresh to us – Jesus will come back and receive us unto Himself that where He is there we may be also.

There are hundreds of Bible passages that promise that He will return to Earth one day. Of His certain return, there is no doubt. All true Christians believe that truth and are waiting for that day when we are all together with Jesus for eternity. But, what exactly does the second coming of Jesus involve – will there be a rapture of the Christians and tribulation for those left behind, or is it a simple one day event and what will transpire during that momentous event? Will there be a 1000 year reign of Christ on the Earth, or does His Second Coming usher in eternity? There are many opinions – all claiming to be right – each supported by Scripture – whether rightly or wrongly interpreted.

This book has been latent within me for several years, but it just has not worked its way out until now. This subject, in particular, has been stuck in my craw for many years. Every time I hear about the “rapture”, I cringe. Not because I do not believe in the Second Coming of Jesus. I do. He is coming again. But, He is not coming again in the manner that is presented by so many good Evangelical Bible preachers and teachers today. The predominate teaching of the “rapture” is founded upon a faulty premise. In fact, it is founded upon many faulty premises.

I am writing this primarily to set forth - in as logical a manner as I can - my thoughts on the Second Coming of Jesus so I will have them recorded. Secondly, I am writing this for those who question the Dispensational, Pre-Tribulational, Pre-Millennial doctrine, who just can't for the life of them figure it out, who are having a hard time reconciling it with what they see the Bible teaching, who thinks it sounds entirely too complex and complicated for the average man or woman to figure out on their own. As others have told me, it all just sounds “fishy” to them. It just doesn't sound right.

Bingo! That is the problem with it. It does not even sound right to people. The average person just cannot see it taught in the Bible unless they have been indoctrinated into it. The reason they can't see it is because...it just is not there. The Biblical doctrine of the Second Coming of Jesus Christ is simple. It is not complicated. The average Christian can sit down with his or her Bible and figure it out for his or her self. The Scriptures were written, not for the well schooled or brilliant, but for the common man. Jesus Himself said in Matthew 24: 15 in what is known as the Olivet Discourse, a prophecy that has been misunderstood by many, "Whoso reads, let him understand." Therefore, let everyone understand this basic premise - all we need in order to understand the Second Coming of Jesus is contained in the Bible itself.

Let me say at the beginning that I believe the Scripture is clear – crystal clear as to the Second Coming. I do not believe that it is complicated, complex, or hidden. I do not believe that in order to understand the Second Coming of Jesus that we need 50 foot charts and diagrams stretched across the front of the church. The Scriptures were written so the common man – not only the highly educated - could understand them. It does not take a seminary degree to understand the basic tenets of the faith, of which the Second Coming is one. It does not take a teacher who “specializes in prophecy” to make it clear. It does not take books or movies or weekend conferences to understand. It takes a simple reading and believing of the Word of God.

Allan Kean:

Many people spending their time frame by playing outside using friends, fun activity using family or just watching TV all day every day. You can have new activity to invest your whole day by reading through a book. Ugh, do you think reading a book can really hard because you have to accept the book everywhere? It all right you can have the e-book, getting everywhere you want in your Smartphone. Like The Seventh Trumpet which is finding the e-book version. So , why not try out this book? Let's notice.

David Manning:

Is it you who having spare time then spend it whole day through watching television programs or just resting on the bed? Do you need something totally new? This The Seventh Trumpet can be the respond to, oh how comes? The new book you know. You are thus out of date, spending your spare time by reading in this brand-new era is common not a nerd activity. So what these ebooks have than the others?

Michael Ogden:

As a student exactly feel bored for you to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library or make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's internal or real their pastime. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring and can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this The Seventh Trumpet can make you feel more interested to read.
