Therapeutic Coloring Book, Sketch Book, Notebook and Doodle Book: 180 Pages of Peace, Calm and Focus - For Students With Learning Challenges ... (Notebooks for Creative People) (Volume 23) Sarah Janisse Brown

Has your child's teacher ever complained that he or she will not sit still and be quiet in class?

This notebook is especially created as a calming therapy for hyper-active students, sensitive kids and creative children who need a new strategy for calming down in class. There is a letter to the teacher on the back of the book explaining the purpose and importance of this therapy.

This is not a normal coloring book, it has over 180 highly detailed activity pages - one page for each day of the school year, so the child will not melt down when he or she runs out of pages before the end of the year. For convenience, the doctor will only need to sign the book once a year.

Ask your child's doctor or therapist to show support by signing the back of the book, or write a note on the inside cover to encourage your child's teacher to support the use of this therapeutic book in the classroom. the book can be used for note taking and doodling during class to help the child to calm down when he or she feels overwhelmed or overstimulated by the classroom environment.

Some children respond so well to the this type of therapy that they are able to refocus and pay attention in class, thus making the most of their time in school.

This Therapeutic Coloring Book, Sketch Book, Notebook, & Doodle Book includes 180 pages, so that the student can use one page per day through-out the school year.

This book is perfect for Students with Learning Challenges Including ADHD, ADD, Dyslexia, LD, OCD, Asperger's Syndrome & Autism Spectrum Disorders.

Teachers, what would you do if a child with challengers pulled out a coloring book during class, and you found out that the doctor had prescribed "coloring in school" as an alternative to medication?
