Wreck Shawn Luther

Five seemingly unrelated stories become entwined during the course of a single night in this climactic novella. It all begins when Darya and her boyfriend Brian witness a man being held at gunpoint on the side of the highway. Despite Brian's protests, Darya follows the perpetrator, determined to stop him somehow. The chase ensues until events begin to spiral out of control, mistakes are made, and people are forced to choose who lives and who dies. A suspenseful thriller as well as an intimate character study, Wreck investigates a day in the life of five ordinary individuals who don't always realize their presence in other's lives. Short but effective, this book will have you clinging to each page.
