Discovered Global Wisdom Alan A. Waldman

Organized for ready reference and use, this book presents the wisdom that Alan A. Waldman, Ph.D., head of an international consultancy, has discovered based on decades of global interactions and travels. Containing insights about life and work around the world, Discovered Global Wisdom goes well beyond the usual self-help and self-improvement books, or the standard how-to books focused just on management, manufacturing of products or provision of services. “If everything looks good, you are looking in the wrong direction” and “Don’t try to fix the blame, try to fix the problem” are just two examples of the provided guidance and advice that will improve the quality of your personal and business life. This companion to Adventures in Global Consulting is a book you will turn to again and again, with sections on: • Favorite Original Sayings and Discovered Wisdom • Discovered Wisdom for Your Personal Life • Discovered Wisdom for Your Business Life
