Jack breezed into my life like a whirlwind and swept me off my feet. But little did I know the kind of wife my new billionaire husband expected me to be.

Could I really be expected to obey him in all things and to accept I would be punished if I didn't follow his commands?

I might have walked out right then if I hadn't loved Jack so much (and if being punished by him hadn't been such an enticingly seductive idea...)

This is a short story of around 10,000 words just right for a very naughty read at bedtime (or anytime you want to put your feet up and indulge in a deliciously sexy story.)

Due to mature language and themes, this love story is not meant for children or for those who are offended by descriptions of sizzling hot naughtiness between consenting married adults.
