After her transition into a vampire, Elena is different and struggling to understand who she sees when she looks in the mirror. But is the answer as simple as a reflection? Can Damon hold the solution to helping Elena find her true self amidst the chaos invading her life, and is seeking his help wise with the questions that still linger between them?

With Elena's choice between the brothers declared before her tragic departure off Wickery Bridge, sealing her fate into vampirism and heart seemingly to Stefan, Damon is trying to re-find his place in her life. But how can he stay away when she needs him more than ever? Even if every reflected look between them only seems to break him more...

A walk through of episode 4x02 Memorial, including what happened when the camera was off.
