40 Jobs In 40 Years: A Journey through a collection of jobs over four decades Tom Hinchey

Tom Hinchey went to school and got good grades, but did not plan his career. He unintentionally became a job-hopper going from one job to the next. Take an entertaining journey through a maze of jobs as he adapts from one situation to the next. He finds himself working in a movie theater, a jet engine factory, a liquor truck, selling cars, making TV commercials, customer service, sales, test driving cars, building motorcycles, and more. The reader experiences the triumphs and the hardships as the author learns difficult life lessons in rejection, goal-setting, and perseverance. The message of choosing your life rather than letting life choose it for you resonates in every chapter.
