High school senior Natalie Jenkins, unwed and pregnant, realizes her life has suddenly been changed forever. Any aspirations of becoming a concert pianist are shattered, replaced by the new reality of diapers, bottles and caring for a child. Will her future be put on hold indefinitely or can she find a way to follow her dreams? Five hundred miles away, Meredith and Ben Robbins have been married for four years and long for a baby of their own. After years of waiting and praying, will the latest IVF treatment finally make their dreams a reality? Natalie's Gift is a heart-wrenching story of selfless love and sacrifice told from opposite points of view. One woman longing desperately for a child while another woman struggles on an unanticipated path—neither knowing where their paths will lead.
