New York Hip Hop Music History: 1979 - 2013 (Volume 2) M. Raheem

The New York Hip Hop Music History book describes and analyzes the development of Hip Hop music in the New York Area over the past thirty-five (35+) years. It provides a profile of the artists' first works and a glimpse into their musical careers, along with supporting discography of the first work recorded and released by the artists. There is also a comparative analysis of the various eras of the development of Hip Hop music in the New York Area. As a bonus, I have added Hip Hop Trivial, which includes a listing of female rappers in the impacted areas in sequence based upon their first recorded and released work in Hip Hop music and "Did You Know?" hip hop history. Finally, the book provides the economic impact of Hip Hop music in the New York Area by number of albums sold, collectively, by all of the Hip Hop artists in the New York over the past thirty-five (35+) years.
