SHIPHEAD: Tales From Time At Sea Jon Courtenay

Jon Courtenay boarded his first ship, the famous QE2 in 1997 and has been traveling continually ever since. Over 1000 flights and 500 cruises later he has a lot of stories to tell. Learn why not to ask about the cost of cocaine in Columbia, what really goes on at crew parties, Spanish mafia, Caribbean brothels, swimming with sharks, the secrets of flying with hand luggage, airline upgrades, sexual escapades and lots of celebrity name-dropping. From Lenny Kravitz in a steam room to almost crashing Nelson Mandela's dinner party.

Jon has been a professional entertainer for more than 20 years performing his one-man comedy show with a piano all over the world. As a guest entertainer on board some of the world's most luxurious cruise ships, he has the best of both worlds, traveling as a passenger but with full access to the crew bars and parties.

A great read. Funny, honest and poignant. A real insider's guide to travel and cruising. A must read for anyone who has ever taken, or thought of taking a trip on a ship. Or an airplane. Or ever been to another country.
