The Eye of Odin F.T. McKinstry

Three hundred years have passed since half of Earth froze, and the human race has settled other planets under the supervision and control of a military contractor who harnessed the powers of the higher mind. But when the daughter of a warrior clan who made her fortune as a fighter in the contractor's service is targeted for discovering a secret beneath their dominion, she must learn the nature of a much greater power, one that even the gods revere.

This story is woven into the Norse myth of Odin, the one-eyed, all-seeing god of war, magic and wisdom. He is a complex figure, associated with poetry and inspiration, madness and battle fury. He is also a shapeshifter and considered fickle, not to be trusted.

No one knows whose side he's on.
