I AM Loyal Donamechi Davis

With no positive guidance in Loyal's life he falls to peer pressure, indulging in gangs and drugs to supplement the void in his life. However, all things that seem good must come to an end. And, soon, he realizes that forgiveness is the ultimate passage to redemption and it is through that process that he learns the true calling on his life; to spread the gospel and win souls. But first, he must endure through the turbulence coming his way. And as a result, God allows Loyal to not only see the natural, but also experience the spiritual. Through such life challenges, a question is posed "When you're lost in hate how do you become found through love?" Loyal must answer this question because his life depends on it
