Someone to Love: Protected by an Alpha Male Julenia

Law student and former playboy Max D'Alessio enjoys the company of a sexy woman just as much as any red-blooded American male, but his heart belongs to one special woman who may not belong completely to him.

When divorcee Kodita Garrison begins working at a homeless shelter, sparks begin to fly between Kodita and Max, who resides at the facility. The chemistry between the two is undeniable and before long, they become romantically involved. She is then subjected to sexual harassment by her boss who has a dark side and he begins taking advantage of the vulnerable situation she is in. He claims the young woman as his, despite his knowledge of the budding romance between Max and Kodita.

Kodita is determined to maintain her independence and to keep her job. Her days belong to her boss, but she needs to figure a way to use her time away from the office to explore other things, such as quality time with friends and her feelings for an alpha male she has been forbidden to see.

Someone To Love: Protected by an Alpha Male is the first of three episodes in the Someone To Love dark multicultural romance series and contains strong themes/language that is meant for readers 18 and over.
