Uncle Scott needs a hero. But, who will help him?

After years of being a diabetic, Uncle Scott is diagnosed with kidney failure. He goes from being lots of fun to either having a dialysis treatment or taking a nap. Just when it seems like Uncle Scott will be sick for years, Lili's dad chooses to become a living donor and donate his second kidney to his brother. It's wonderful how sharing something you have extra makes everybody feel better. Join Lili as she journeys through the kidney transplant process from sickness to health for both the kidney recipient and the living donor. Maybe you will even ask yourself, "Am I brave enough to be a hero?"
